ATTORNEY CHARLES B. JIMERSON NAMED TO FLORIDA TREND’S LEGAL ELITE 2010
Jimerson is managing partner of Jimerson & Wilson, P.A.

Jacksonville, Fla. – July 12, 2010 – Attorney Charles B. Jimerson, managing partner of Jimerson & Wilson, P.A., is recognized by Florida Trend magazine as an “Up & Comer,” a designation for lawyers under the age of 40 or in practice fewer than 10 years, in its Florida Legal Elite 2010 special section. Jimerson joins 110 Florida attorneys recognized as an “Up & Comer” in this year’s Legal Elite peer voting.

“It is humbling to be recognized by your peers and to be in such company with this honor,” said Jimerson, whose practice areas continue to focus on commercial litigation, real estate/construction litigation and banking law. “Recognition like this is a nice validation for all of the nights and weekends spent with your nose in a crusty, old legal treatise.”

Jimerson is an active member of the Jacksonville Bar Association, the Chester Bedell Inns of Court, the Gator Bowl Association and numerous professional and community organizations in Northeast Florida. He has also served as an adjunct professor of business law at Florida Community College of Jacksonville.

Jimerson is a graduate of the University of Florida Levin College of Law, the University of Kentucky Gatton College of Business and Economics and the Campbell University Lundy-Fetterman School of Business. While attending Campbell, he also served as an active duty Special Operations Combat Meteorologist in the United States Air Force. During his tenure in the military, he was the youngest operationally certified meteorological forecaster.
