

Awards & Recognition

Jimerson Birr is committed to providing clients with the highest quality of legal services with an emphasis to adding measurable value in every engagement. Our firm strives to create a rewarding and engaging environment in the workplace in which each professional is personally fulfilled and excited to get out of bed every morning to make an impact on our clients' businesses. We've found that the key to doing great work is to love what you do and respect who you do it with.

These accolades are objective proof that Jimerson Birr is one of the most respected law firms in Florida. The firm receives numerous awards and tributes year after year for our leadership and expertise in the legal field, our outstanding client service, our demonstrated commitment to our personnel, and our steady growth. Jimerson Birr lawyers frequently earn high rankings and recommendations from business publications, industry and trade organizations, legal news journals and the clients with whom we work. To us, these achievements aren't just blue ribbons - they're demonstrated indicators of the trust, satisfaction and loyalty our employees and clients have developed for the firm.

Jimerson Birr and its attorneys are often recognized for excellence in the profession and the community. Some highlights of our firm-wide honors, include: