FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JIMERSON BIRR WINS THE FLORIDA COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION JOURNAL READERS CHOICE AWARD

Jimerson Birr is a full service business law firm focused on providing legal advice and enduring value to businesses of most any industry

Jacksonville, Fla. – March 15, 2019 – Jimerson Birr has been recognized by Florida Community Association Journal magazine as a winner of their sixth annual Readers’ Choice Award. The award recognizes the positive and productive contributions by community association service providers across Florida.

“This recognition bears out Jimerson Birr’s strong reputation in Florida’s community associations industry,” said Managing Partner Charles B. Jimerson. “Our attorneys provide invaluable legal counsel to the board of directors for condominium associations and homeowners associations across the state, most of whose board members completely serve in a volunteer capacity. Jimerson Birr takes the responsibility for serving as their trusted partner very seriously. As a result, our lawyers maintain the highest level of competency, so that with thorough preparation and capable representation, we can help deliver the results each community association seeks.”

“I feel very honored that our firm was selected for this award,” commented Partner Hans C. Wahl, who is Board Certified in Condominium and Planned Development Law by the Florida Bar. “Our Community Association practice group takes pride in delivering outstanding service each day, and recognition like makes it apparent that we are achieving that goal. Thank you to all of our clients and members of the industry who participated and voted for Jimerson Birr.”

Since being founded in 2013, the FLCAJ Readers Choice Awards have grown every year, with more than 500 service providers nominated for this year’s awards and more than 8,400 votes cast. There is no fee associated with the Awards and the entire submission process is done online, with winners chosen based solely on the total number of votes.
